Remote working has many advantages for employees and organisations, but it also comes with its own set of challenges.

Without sharing office space, colleagues must find new ways to meet, share ideas and collaborate. Lacking the opportunity to pick up on cues like body language, facial expression and tone puts a heavier burden on written communication – and can mean more misunderstandings and bad feeling. And an absence of in-person interaction can lead to team members feeling disconnected, disengaged and isolated.

At the same time, leaders of remote teams must understand how to keep their team members feeling motivated and supported, while negotiating cultural or language barriers and different working and communicating styles.

Thriving in the virtual environment

But with a new skill set, effective workflows and an understanding of how to make the most of available tools, your distributed team can thrive in their virtual workplace. This intensive session will equip delegates with the key skills and techniques they need.

‘We chose Emphasis because they really “got it” – they really understood exactly what we needed and what our issues were.’

Venue

Our trainers are based in the UK, the US and Europe, but we train globally. Wherever you are in the world, we can come to you to run the course. We can also train remotely.

Why it works

- ✔ Pre-course social style analysis helps each learner understand how they relate to others, and team leaders to better support their colleagues.
 - ✔ Small-group training ensures each delegate gets individual attention.
 - ✔ Targeted exercises and discussion keep learners engaged and mean they immediately practise applying the techniques.
 - ✔ Each delegate receives one year’s access to our business-writing helpdesk to support them as they take what they’ve learned into their roles.

Learning objectives

On this intensive session, your team will learn how to:

- ✔ understand virtual-communication etiquette and tone
- ✔ establish their message and choose the right channel to share it
- ✔ define a shared vision and keep each other connected and engaged
- ✔ communicate key messages clearly
- ✔ inform, update and persuade with their writing
- ✔ avoid misunderstandings, plug communication gaps and defuse conflict
- ✔ run engaging online meetings
- ✔ encourage and manage others’ contributions
- ✔ use workflows that maintain the flow of information
- ✔ collaborate effectively online
- ✔ understand and work with different social styles.

What does the programme include?

This course typically runs as an intensive half-day session covering the key techniques for effective virtual communications.

As part of the preparation, we ask delegates to fill in an analysis exercise which identifies their social style. The insights that this questionnaire reveals about each team member will help them relate better to each other remotely and team leaders to better manage and support their colleagues.

We can also adapt the training to suit your team's specific needs, extending to a full day that includes more detail on topics such as effective online writing or how to manage remote teams. Or the half-day can be combined with e-learning, writing analysis and one-to-one feedback.

We can also help you define and develop your virtual-communications plan.
